Preface

We are pleased to present the proceedings of The 3rd International Conference on Contemporary Risk Studies (ICONIC-RS 2024), held on the 3rd of October 2024 in Surakarta, Indonesia. The conference serves as a dynamic forum for scholars, practitioners, and professionals to exchange insights, research findings, and best practices in the field of risk studies across diverse sectors.

This volume constitutes the thoroughly refereed conference proceedings, encompassing 17 full papers that were carefully selected through a rigorous peer-review process from a significant number of submissions. The accepted papers reflect the rich thematic diversity and multidisciplinary approach of the conference, covering both theoretical advancements and practical applications.

The contributions in this book are organized according to the following key themes:

- a. Risk on Energy Sector and Sustainability
- b. Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG)
- c. Risk Management and Good Corporate Governance
- d. Contemporary Economy and Geopolitical Risk
- e. Risk on Communication, Media Studies, Cyber, Security, and Digital Risk
- f. Economic and Business Development, Finance, Human Capital, Marketing, and Operation

We extend our deepest appreciation to all authors, reviewers, session chairs, and organizing committee members whose commitment and scholarly contributions have made this conference a success. We also thank our institutional partners and sponsors for their continued support in promoting critical discourse on contemporary risk issues.

We hope that the insights and discussions presented in these proceedings will serve as a valuable reference for academics, industry professionals, and policymakers seeking to navigate and address the complexities of risk in the contemporary global landscape.

Frieska Haridha, M.A., Dr. Eka Puspitawati, Dr. Indra Kusumawardhana
