Preface

We are delighted to present the proceedings of the International Conference on Public Administration and Governance (ICOPAG), organized by the Faculty of Administrative Sciences, Universitas Brawijaya (Indonesia), in partnership with Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (Malaysia), and Visayas State University (the Philippines). This conference serves as a platform for researchers, practitioners, and academics from around the globe to share their insights and findings on contemporary issues in public administration and governance.

The proceedings of ICOPAG include 107 full papers, contributed by authors from five countries: Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Thailand, and Romania. These papers cover a wide range of topics aligned with the conference's mission to foster collaboration and knowledge exchange in the field of governance and administration.

The conference featured esteemed speakers who enriched the discussions with their expertise:

- Prof. Kaleb Sepp: Head of the Department of Environmental Protection and Landscape at the Estonian University of Life Sciences. Prof. Sepp lectures on nature conservation, landscape ecology, and environmental management. He has held significant positions, including Vice-President of the International Union for Nature Conservation (IUCN) and member of the Horizon 2020 Programme Committee for Environment, including climate change in Brussels.
- Prof. Aslam Fataar: Distinguished Professor in the Department of Education Policy Studies at Stellenbosch University, South Africa. Specializing in Sociology of Education and Education Policy, Prof. Fataar has published extensively and served as President of the South African Education Research Association. His recent work includes the book "Searching for Islamic Ethical Agency in Post-Apartheid Cape Town."
- Prof. Yuzuru Shimada: Dean of the Graduate School of International Development at Nagoya University, Japan. His research focuses on Asian Law, particularly Indonesian law, and the relationship between law and socio-economic and political development. Prof. Shimada's current research topics include the post-authoritarian constitutional regime in Indonesia and the role of law in large-scale disasters.
- Assoc. Prof. Dr. Corrienna binti Abdul Talib: Associate Professor at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, specializing in STEAM education, environmental sustainability, and technology innovation. Dr. Corrienna has been a keynote speaker and facilitator in numerous international projects aimed at fostering a technology-driven thinking community among educators and students.
- Prof. Moises Neil V. Serino: Professor in the Department of Economics at Visayas State University, Philippines. With a doctorate from the University of Göttingen, Germany, Prof. Serino's research interests include development economics, climate change, and sustainable development. He currently serves as the director of the Visayas Socio-Economic Research and Data Analytics Center.

- Dr. Drs. Fadillah Amin, MAP, Ph.D.: Lecturer at the Faculty of Administrative Sciences, Universitas Brawijaya. Dr. Fadillah specializes in state finance, regional finance, and public policy, contributing significantly to research and community service in these areas.

The success of ICOPAG would not have been possible without the unwavering dedication of the organizing committee and the insightful contributions of all the participants. We extend our deepest gratitude to the authors who submitted their work and to the reviewers whose efforts ensured the high quality of the proceedings. Special thanks are also due to our keynote speakers and session chairs for their invaluable input and leadership.

We firmly believe that ICOPAG provides an excellent forum for dialogue and cooperation among scholars and practitioners. It is our hope that this conference will continue to inspire innovative research and solutions in public administration and governance, paving the way for impactful collaborations in the years to come.

We wish all readers an enlightening experience as they explore the proceedings of ICOPAG.

Aulia Luqman Aziz, Corrienna Abdul Talib, and Rodolfo T. Aunzo, Jr.
